

Aboriginal Incursion's Bilby for Early Learning and Pre-School Childrens Events

Bilby Learning - Pre schools and Early Learning Centres - Bilby is Warlpajirri or Ahurt in two Central Australian Indigenous languages

Empowering students & teachers through Aboriginal and Torres Straits Islander culture with traditional ceremonies, interactive education, and immersive experiences.

Designed and facilitated by First Nation peoples our indigenous facilitators provide students and teachers with a variety of culturally safe educational opportunities.

This show consists of:

Didgeridoo Show - Traditional and contemporary solo didgeridoo performance. One performer in full traditional costume, performing traditional and contemporary didgeridoo sounds and rhythms.

Face Painting - Our Indigenous tutor will have traditional ochre and skin safe water paint from which they will paint the children's faces. (optional)

Song and Dance - Our indigenous tutor will entertain with some traditional dance moves and encourage all children to participate.

Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Island Art - Our indigenous tutor will teach the children basic Aboriginal symbols which they will paint on a canvas guided by the tutor. The painting will then be given to the school to display.

Storytelling - Dreamtime stories from the past will be told with gusto and expression to enthral the children

This program is a fantastic hands on interactive show. The children have a lot of fun learning about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture.
